

BEVERAGE CONTAINER RECYCLING PROGRAM

*Prepared by
Chayo Valenzuela
Program Coordinator*

Ad's placed at Omnitrans transit (bus) shelters.

LYLE S. BRIGGS FUNDAMENTAL SCHOOL

11880 ROSWELL AVENUE

Chino

Carol Voznick's 5th Grade Class entered program November 21, 2002. Collection has grown 3 times since arrival of bins.

"We were saving our money to make a brick path in our garden, but we used some of it to mail homemade cards to the service people"

Two female students
wearing shoelaces
"I Used To Be A Soda Bottle"

"We're enjoying throwing our weeds and old plants in to mix and smash them into "new," rich soil."

High Desert Master Composters Morongo Basin/ Recyclers entered program April 5, 2002. Bin located at Coyote Corner, Joshua Tree. Proceeds to further Environmental Programs to benefit the community.

High Desert Master Composters Morongo Basin/ Recyclers entered program April 5, 2002. Bin located at Joshua Tree Inn, Joshua Tree. Proceeds to further Environmental Programs to benefit the community.

Big Morongo Canyon Preserve, Morongo Valley. Entered program September 18, 2002. Proceeds used for printing of educational materials.

Morongo Hardware, Morongo Valley. Entered program October 9, 2002. Proceeds support Big Morongo Canyon Preserve.

Morongo Valley Community Services District. Entered program January 2002. Bins located @ Ballfield and Park in Morongo Valley. Proceeds to support volunteer Fire Department.

San Antonio Heights Association, Upland. Entered program September 1, 2001. Bin located in parking lot of Albertson's. Proceeds used for community projects.

Sign posted at intersection of Cedar & Valley Blvd.
Bloomington

Mid Valley Literacy Coalition &
Bloomington Library, Bloomington.
Entered program
December 9, 2002.
Proceed used for books &
breakfast for tutors.

Charles Huffman Elementary School, Running Springs. Entered program September 16, 2003. The community of Running Springs contributes to collection.

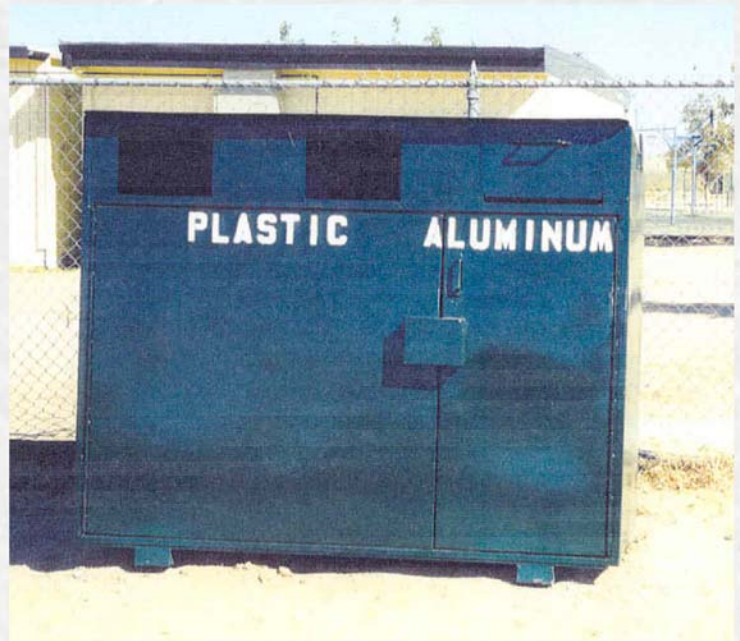

Karen Gilbert's 5th grade students. Proceeds fund school activities.

On a friendly note these Igloos provided shelter for the fireman who bravely fought the fires that ravaged our mountains in October 2003.

Paper & cardboard collection. Bin located in downtown Running Springs.

Lenwood Elementary School,
Barstow. Entered program
October 10, 2002.
Proceeds to support
student activities.

Lucerne Valley Cross Roads
BMX. Entered program
February 21, 2002.
Proceeds pay for utilities.

Copper Mtn Mesa Community Center, Joshua Tree. Entered program October 21, 2001.
Proceeds pay the bills.

Newberry Springs Assembly of God. Entered program December 18, 2001.
Proceeds fund youth programs.

Riverview Middle School, Helendale. Entered program February 2, 2001. Proceeds funding student activities.

Yermo Elementary School. Entered program October 26, 2000. Proceeds fund ASB Activities.

Homestead Valley Park
and Recreation, Landers.
Entered program
September 29, 2003.
Containers in front and
near the ballfield.
Proceeds will be used for maintenance
of park and ballfield.

March 5, 2004 program dedication.
From left Hansberger's field rep.
Bruce Davis, Dennis Hansberger, Myself,
field manager Bill Baragona
and maintenance manager Chuck Maloney.

Glen Helen Regional Park in San Bernardino. The park is being retrofitted with these type of recycling containers. All aluminum trash cans will be eliminated. Habitat for Humanity San Bernardino Area, Inc. entered program on April 4, 2004. Paul Dainko of Hub Construction and Habitat volunteers redeem the containers to build more houses in partnership with families in need.

Joshua Tree Lake, RV
and Campground.
Entered program
July 23, 2004.
Proceeds to benefit the community.

The Institute of Mentalphysics, Joshua Tree.
Entered program March 9, 2004. The High Desert
Master Composters/Morongo
Basin Recyclers maintain the proceeds to promote Educational and Enviromental Programs to benefit desert communities.

Rim of the World High School entered program on September 10, 2004. Dave Meigide Rim High Performance/Auto Club ASB maintain the bins. Proceeds used for scholarships.

This recycling bin is placed at the rear of school in front of the football field.

20 recycling bins placed around the campus.

Landers Association, Inc. entered program November 16, 2004. Proceeds are used to fund community projects.

Baldwin Lane Elemenary School, Big Bear City.
The Booster Club entered program September
16, 2004. The proceeds will fund students field trips.

North Shore Elementary School, Big Bear City.
The Earlyact Club
sponsored by Rotary
Club of Big Bear Lake.
Entered program
July 7, 2004.
Proceeds fund
Earlyact club.

